

I will like to talk about our Prayers Life;

Firstly, what is prayer?

The bible made us understand that prayer is very important in a life of a Christian.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-17 says, Rejoice always, pray without ceasing,

Prayer is a means of communication between us and God, take note that communication required two or more persons to communicate freely.

Communicating usually take place with someone you either have existing relationship with, or you're creating a new one.

YOU can only communicate frequently with someone you're a relationship with

Communications are main to be profitable in either ways, and that is a fruit of a reliable relationships builds over time.

SO TO SAY

If we have a relationship with people and it is profitable in some aspect how much more we having the best, reliable and dependable relationship with God?

For relationships to be a reliable kind, it must be established with Respect, Trust and Dependable; these three characters are very important but one of these characters is the greater and a must to have, which is Trust.

Trust is very difficult to achieve in most relationships among men, but because Trust is the foundation of every good relationship, if we lack Trust, the relationship fails.

When you Trust then you rely, you depend on. Trust is faith and faith is Trust, which means you have faith in who you Trust.

Trust comes when one values the relationship, Jesus Christ placed high values in His relationship with us so that we may have valuable relationships with God.

You can only have a valuable relationship with God by obeying His words and acting on them, while He fulfills His promise in return with rewards as a loving Father of all.

Many times we go to God in prayers, we don't consider the must-have character which is Trust, rather we keep demanding, commanding, authorizing Him to do what we want.

Let me shock you; many blessing we received after prayers is by His mercy not by good relationship maintained.

That's why we always ask for something, we ask for money, we ask for cars, we even ask for powers to kill our enemies.

When we maintained a good relationship with God, He reveals more than what we couldn't imagine, and He make us greater in His glory,

Proverb 8:15

I Love those who love me, and those who seek me diligently find me.

PSA 84:11

Mark 16:17

Jesus Christ declared that; these signs will accompany those who believe; in my name they shall cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; 18. They will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.

But for some of us who are yet to make well their relationship with God, He said in that same proverb 15:8

The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord, but the prayer of the upright is acceptable to him.

He cares more to those who obey Him, those who trust in Him and He made everything possible for them, but for those who disobeyed, He warned.

Proverb 28:9

If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.

So, it is not all about jumping into prayers, because you're ask to pray or situation warrant you to pray but discovering the (must have character) in your relationship with God first,

So that your prayers maybe that of a son and the Father communication.
